To Whom It May Concern:

The Latino Advocacy Coalition of Henderson County (LAC), is a grassroots nonprofit formed to address the challenges faced by Latino immigrants in Western North Carolina. Our mission is to foster a more inclusive community for Latinos through unique services, leadership development, and the promotion of community resources. For the last 15 years the Latino center has been a safe place for community members to come together and discuss issues. The center serves approximately 4,000 people a year through our programs and activities.

Part of developing a sense of place for the Latino community in Henderson County is having public green spaces to recreate in. LAC sees the further extension of the Oklawaha Greenway as a safe and beautiful way to get Latino families and all families in Henderson County out and enjoying nature.

The Latino Advocacy Coalition of Henderson County is in full support of grant requests and efforts to achieve expansion of the Oklawaha Greenway. If I can expand in any way regarding our support of this project, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Mccready
Carolina
Co-Director, LAC
